PULASKI, TENN FRIDAY MORNING, JAN'Y. 19, 1866

Evacuated.

Pulaski was evacuated on Wednesday last, 17th inst. by the U. S. C. I. We are still alive, but grieving immensely.(!) solemn gloom has settled over town! Oh! how we miss our protectors!

THE LAW .- We invite attention to the card of Maj. Richardson. The Major is an old lawyer and a popular man in this county. He needs no encomiums from us.

Tonsorial .-- Alex and Cal. Booker will give you a genteel shave, trim your hair, black your mustache, and re-construct you generally, if you will give them a call .-They have opened shop on the South side public square, up-stairs.

BLACKSMITHING .- John Black, a black man and a black-smith, offers his services to the public. We believe John is said to be a good smith.

GASPARD .- We have on file a poetical contribution from Gaspard, but our rules have not been complied with, and however meritorious the production, we cannot pub-

LILLIAN .--- We promise our readers a treat next week. Our popular correspondent, LILLIAN, has favored us with a poem, entitled, "After the battle." She will be a regular contributor in future.

Col. John M. Simonton, Speaker of the Senate of Mississippi, has been spending the week in our town, the guest of his trother-in-law, Dr. W. M. BURDETT. He leaves for his home in Ittawomba county, Miss., this morning.

New Aldermen Elect.

At the regular annual election, held on Saturday 13th inst., the following gentlemen were elected Aldermen of Pulaski: G. W. PETWAY, J. L. JONES,

A.R. RICHARDSON, JOHN KOUNS, ALLEN E. MAY, DR. J. A. SUMTER, J. C. GORDON.

This is a good board, and we hope and believe each member will do his duty. We need an energetic board-one that will entorce the corporation laws rigidly, and commence the work of repairing our dilapidated streets and side-walks. Go to work, gentlemen; we rejoice to know that Pulaski can boast of seven elligible men, who are at the same time efficient.

Give me the cups And let the kettle to the trumpet speak, The trampet to the cannoneer without,
The cannon to the heavens, the herven to earth,
New the editor drinks to Col. Hill.

"Shades" of Col. Hill! how delightful to linger about thy threshold-to inhale thy gentle odors, and quaff thy delicious beverages! How delightful to-hie-'Shades' -hic-can't see it. "Shades" of Colonel -hic-Hill! why torture-hic-niger soldiers gone-git drunk freely-bic-Shades -Col. Hill!-old Robertson county!-Fill up my meerchaum-take a smoke to Colenel Hill-no, a drink-old Robertson tobacco, and killekinick whisky! Shades of Col. Hill-bury decently-"S-h-a-d-e-s"-!-

Our sampling editor was found yesterday evening, with the above soliloguy in his hand. It is the old sad, sad story. Verdiet against Col Hill. The truth is, that prince of gentlemen, Col. Hill, had given him a bottle of that splendid old Robertson, with a pretty label on it, printed in Nashville, together with a paper of Killickenick, and a piece of Laughorn & Armstead's best. You know the rest.

NASHVILEE PAPERS .- We get all the dailies published at Nashville except the Banner and the Union. Will they please place us on their lists.

To our Country Friends.

In the absence of all mail facilities in the interior of the County, would it not be a very great convenience for each neighborhood to select a place, most central and convenient to all, as a depository for mail-matter coming to this office for that neighborhood, and then make it the duty of each man, whenever he comes to town, to enquire for and deliver at the selected point all mail matter for its inhabitants? This arrangement might be made in each neighborhood of the county very easily, and would enable them to get mail matter at least two or three times each week. It would also enable us to furnish them with the latest news through the Citizen much earlier than they are in the habit of getting in now. Almost every neighborhood in the county has one or more representatives here every Saturday. These representatives could call for the package of Citizens for that neighborhood, and each subscriber would have his newspaper of Friday to read

Saturday night and Sunday. We urge upon our friends to make this arrangement at once.

Lost in Pulaski, between Davy Spear's shop and the square, a splendid Derranger Pistol, No. 1, made by F. J. Bitterlich, Nashville, Tenn. Any person finding the same will be paid the above reward on bringing the pistol to this office undamaged

HYMENIAL RERORT

Here love his golden shaft employs, here lights His constant lamp and waves his purple wings-Reigns here and revels.

MARRIED, Tuesday evening, 16th inst. the residence of the bride's father, in this place, Maj. H. C. BATE, of Mississippi, to Miss Rosa Simonton.

We congratulate Major Bars, that he has secured such an invaluable prize; yet we can but grieve, in common with the younger portion of the community, that we are to be deprived the society of one so genial, so much beloved. He must not forget, when he transplants the levely Rosa to his sunny outhern home, that he has left aching hearts behind. He had gallant rivals here; they submit only with sighs. May the Major and his fair bride realize perpetually "love's young dream.

Love is life's end; an end but never ending; All joys, all sweets, all happiness awarding; Loye is life's wealth, (never spent but ever spending),

More rich by giving, taking by discarding;
Love is life's reward, rewarded in rewarding;
'Twill from a wretched heart fond care remove;
Ah! should'st thou live but once love's sweets to prove, Thou wilt not love to live, unless thou live to love. Love is a celestial harmony of hearts which join together in sweet sympathy to work each other's happiness. It is the end, the joy, the wealth, the reward of life-nature's second sun, causing a spring of virtues wherever he shines. It is but sanctified and strengthened by the holy rites of matrimony. May Miss Rosa and the Maj. reap all its joys and rewards.

Size, Coloring, etc. In this Celebrated Establishment are made those beautiful pictures of Every Sule, and of All Sizes, from Life-size to the smallest Finger-R ng-Miniature, and so ellegantly colored in Oil, that the Hair, Eyes, Complexion and Expression can be so well preserved by the Artist that the Likeness is at once identified as (almost) "a living creature."

"PEARL MINIATURES." These Pertraits are Kich, Complete and Beautiful. They can be highly colored and given a delicacy of complexion not possessed by the Fairest Lady, or even the Pure Alabaster Whiteness of a In this respect only are these likenesses flat-

Superiority: OLD PICTURES, ETC., of any kind copied to any size.
